

Double Cups

ICP ceramic double cups are a beneficial component used in the manufacture of quality investment castings. The double cup design helps to reduce re-oxidation inclusions by allowing air to escape through the up sprue during casting and are especially useful for non-ferrous castings. These cups are made from proprietary mullite or fused silica compositions compatible with investment mold materials.

Several sizes available.

Samples upon request.

